Thank you for being here with us today! We pray that you will be drawn by Jesus’ love to come again. As we reverently gather before the throne of grace, we seek the Holy Spirit’s power to make us like Jesus and to be a blessing to others.

After the church service, please remain in your seats until you are dismissed from the sanctuary, and then exit quietly to the outside. We ask that you hold your conversations until you are out of the sanctuary in order to maintain an atmosphere of reverence in the house of God.

Next week's offering is for the Local Combined Budget.

The elder on call next week is Henry Jiang. His number is 269-252-3076.

Our children’s Scripture memory activity will take place next Sabbath after the worship service. Those participating are welcome to join in a potluck meal before the activity begins.

Zoom prayer meeting will be each Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. All are welcome! Contact Kimberly for access details.

Secrets of Daniel series continues each Wednesday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the school. Join us as we look at inspiring stories and powerful revelations in the book of Daniel.

Bulletin information should be sent to bulletin@fairplainadventist.org by Wednesday noon.

Sabbath ends tonight at 6:46 p.m. and begins again next Friday at 7:53 p.m.

Recounting His Blessings

“The more thankfulness you express, the more you will have to express. The whole universe is looking upon us; and see what efforts God has made for our salvation. He has given his only begotten Son to die for us. He was willing to come to our world, to leave the royal throne, that he might save the fallen race of men. Says the prophet, ‘... he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.’ He made an infinite sacrifice on Calvary’s cross for us. Then why is it that we are always talking of our bruises? Why are we not healed? He died to pardon our sins, and to become our righteousness. When Satan comes to tell you that you are sinner, tell him that you know you are, but that Christ came into the world to save sinners, and that makes him your Saviour. I love him; I believe in him today”
